Rabbit-Cat Discovered.

Rabbit-Cat Discovered.

Some of the extremely old residents at Sayville, L. L., say it is a skoodum, which appears every seventeen years in the dark of the moon after a hard winter, but Walter Kessings says it's a half cat, half rabbit. Mr. Kessing is a farmer and a man of repute. He went into the woods with a friend from the city with the intention of getting material for a rabbit poiple.

There was a rustle in the underbrush, and an animal hopped out and darted for the road. There it haited, and, to the intense astonishment of Kessing and his friend, set up an able bodied yow!, the like of which is heard only at an Egyptian concert on a city back fence.

"Well, by gum!" exclaimed the farmer, "It lopes like a rabbit, it's got the cotton tail of a rabbit, but, by fiminety! it talks like a tomeat!" Dropping his gun, Kessing leaped forward and caught the strange creature in his arm. He took it home and has it on exhibition. It is a sure enough half cat half rabbit, with sharp claws in the forefeet and the stumpy toes of the hare.

HAWKEYE STATE IS FOR HEARST

Newspaper Man Captures Iowa State Democratic Convention-His Delegates Selected.

ES MOINES, In., May 4.-William R. Hearst swept the field in the Iowa State Democratic convention held here today. He had a muority of over 150 in the convention and Hearst resolutions were adopted, the Hearst delegations from the contested counties were seated and Hearst delegates were selected and the convention instructed to vote as a unit and stands by Charles Welsh as member of the National committee. The convention was bolsterous and the orators, of whom there were many on both sides, were hissed, some of them being driven from the stage.

Congressman M. J. Wade, the only Democratic Congressman from Iowa; J. W. Sullivan, late candidate for governor: M. F. Healy, who came out of a retirement of six years to do it, and others, appealed to their party in vain against instructions. The Hearst peo-ple would listen to no compromise and Wade and Sullivan do not appear on the delegation. It is headed by J. M. Parsons of Rock Rapids, the other delegates at large being Gen. James B. Weaver of Colfax, Judge William Carr of Manchester and S. E. Wadsworth of Council Bluffs.

Cries of "bought," "brass collar,"
"how much did it cost," met the Hearst spealers whenever they attempted to speak and pandemonium reigned in the convention.

The resolutions adopted were mild.

They include a paragraph touching the evils of taxation, etc., and lay greater stress on the trusts and point to Wil-liam R. Hearst as the champion of the anti-trust idea. The trust paragraph is as follows:

"Second, that we recognize in the predatory trusts the greater danger that has ever threatened the life of the nation and the welfare of the people, and denounce their scheme of levying tribute upon all producers and consumers as a modern system of brigandage, which, while masquerading under the cloak of the law, in fact makes of law a mockery and justice a farce. In ut-ter disregard of the natural and constitutional rights of the farmer, the mer-chants and the great army of wage-earners, trusts have ruthlessly selzed upon every branch of production and distribution until every avenue of hu-man endeavor is compelled to be at the behests of these conscienceless crimnais and pay tribute or cease to exist.
"Third, that we denounce the vicious tariff system fostered and perpetuated by the Republican party, under which the trusts have been born, bred, fat-tened and specie multiplied until they have every industrial interest by the throat, and we demand the repeal of every tariff which denies 'equal oppor-tuntities for all.'
